128 REASONS TO BECOME A SCOUT LEADER

Reason #18: Camping-sleeping in a tent, cooking over a fire, sitting around a campfire. Camping with the Boy Scouts may not be as comfortable as staying home, but it can be more exciting. After all, what could be more fun than being on your own? What could be more exciting than learning to survive?

Reason #22: Citizenship in the Community - The future of our community lies in the strength of our youth. Scouting helps youth understand their role in the community and encourages them to explore volunteer opportunities so they can work to improve it. This knowledge will make them better citizens, as well as making our community a better place to live.

Reason#44: Fire Safety - In a world where tragedies are an everyday occurrence. It's nice to know there is something we can do to ensure our own safety. Fire Safety teaches Boy Scouts to be safe and how to help others be safe. It's not just about putting fires out; it's about preventing them in the first place.

Clarification on Multiple Youth Protection Training for Adults.

If you are on a Boy Scout, Cub Scout, Merit Badge Counselor, or Northeast Iowa Council Roster you must take Youth Protection Training.

If you are on a Venture Unit Roster (whether you are multiple or not) you must take Venture Youth Protection.

If you are on an Explorer Post (whether you are multiple or not) you must take Explorer Youth Protection.

Yes, some of our Scouters have to take all three Youth Protection Training offered because they are listed under all three categories.

HAVE YOU HUGGED YOUR COMMISSIONER TODAY??

The commissioner is the liaison between the local Council and Scouting units. The Commissioner's mission is to keep the units operating at maximum efficiency; maintain regular contact with unit leaders; counsel leaders on where to find assistance; note weakness in programs, and suggest remedies. The Commissioner is successful when units effectively deliver the ideals of Scouting to their members. If you do not know who your commissioner is please contact your local District Executive.

ALL REGISTERED LEADERS AND MERIT BADGE COUNSELORS MUST COMPLETE YOUTH PROTECTION!!!

A great many of our Scouters have taken their Youth Protection Training to comply with National's mandate that every registered Scouter complete the training every two years.

- Youth Protection training is required for all registered volunteers.
- New leaders are required to take Youth Protection training before they submit an application for registration. The certificate of completion for this training must be submitted at the time application is made and before volunteer service with youth begins.
- Youth Protection training must be taken every two years. If a volunteer's Youth Protection training record is not current at the time of recharter, the volunteer will not be reregistered.
- If you have not taken Youth Protection training within the past two years, please log on to MyScouting and take the training. Be sure to have your member ID number. The number can be found on your Boy Scouts of America membership card or contact the Council Service Center for your number.

Thank You to All,

All of us have choices to make as we travel our journey through life. Some things happen to us that are not by our choice. Such is the case with Sally's journey and her health. Most of you don't know how difficult her journey was because of her health. There were a lot of times that she may not have felt like doing something but she always did it anyway without letting on how bad she may have felt. She was like the energizer bunny, she just kept going and going until July 11, 2010 when God said you have suffered enough, I'm bringing you home today.

Everyone who is reading this has made a choice in their life journey to help young people by being involved in Boy Scouts. It was also a passion of Sally's from being involved with Cub Scouts to the Order of the Arrow. She was also very passionate about her faith and helping young people learn about God by teaching Sunday school and confirmation classes. She also believed in helping people that were hurting by being trained as a Stephen Minister through our church and then ministering to those in need. As you can see in this short paragraph she did touch the lives of a lot of young people and adults too. She lived her life by the words on a magnet on our refrigerator (many of you may have this also). It reads "One hundred years from now, it will not matter what kind of car I drove, what kind of house I lived in, how much I had in my bank account, nor what my clothes looked like. But the world may be a little better because I was important in the life of a child".

I am writing this because she touched the lives of so many Scouts. That was so evident to me during the wake and funeral service. So many of you took time out of your day, youth and adults alike, to do a ceremony at the wake and or attend her funeral to help there. When we came out of the church and everyone was lined up at attention saluting as her casket went between the two rows of Scouts, I can't explain to you the feeling I had at that moment and it is one that I will never forget. I know she was watching from heaven and beaming with pride in all the young people who participated.

So many people helped that I can't remember everyone who was there to be able to thank you individually. Others helped by giving memorials, food and friendship. A simple Thank You seems so inadequate but it is a deeply heartfelt thank you. Thank You so very much to everyone who helped in any way, it is appreciated more than know.

Owen J. Leeser

Memorial/Tribute Fund

Words too often do not express the sentiment we feel at the death of a friend. No finer tribute can be paid than to encourage some boy to live the life of a Scout, and thus perpetuate the high principles you admire in your friend. A contribution to the Boy Scout Permanent Endowment Tribute Fund is the perfect tribute.

Your gift to the Permanent Endowment Tribute Fund of the Northeast Iowa Council, Boy Scouts of America is:

- . . . A gift that will live on forever for the future of Scouting in the Northeast Iowa Council permanent endowment fund
- . . . A Tribute to the one whom you wish to honor
- . . . Promptly acknowledged with a tribute certificate
- . . . A convenient way of expressing your feelings
- . . . A tax deductible contribution and a private expression

Remembrance can have no finer expression than through a living gift to the Boy Scout Permanent Endowment Tribute Fund. The Permanent Endowment Tribute Fund crosses all lines of religion and wealth. It warms the hearts of all involved.

Jamboree Memories

The 2010 Jamboree was a memory that I will never forget and will always look back at in the future. The thing I liked about Jamboree was that you were never bored and that you were always trying something new every day. I think that I will do it again in 2013 at the summit. The summit is where the 2013 jamboree is going to be held and it is going to become a high adventure base. I think the jamboree is a life changing experience and that if you have a boy in Scouting you should push him to go to 2013 Jamboree.

From The OA Lodge

As the new Lodge Advisor, I see Timmeu Lodge much like that arrow emblazed on our sash which aims upward and onward. This fall so much is happening in the Lodge, but I believe so much more can be done with our cheerful service. Our members were selected to this order because of their leadership qualities so, to keep our arrow true we need help from them. I would like to suggest three simple things our members can do. First, pay your dues ($11.00). It’s cheap, and feels so good when you do! Second, take a look at your calendar and see how many service projects you have planned for the month. Got nothing planned, or perhaps need help thinking of something? We got a bunch of projects already planned out, and we would love to have you join us! Third, smile and wear your sash proudly. I have a little tip regarding this last point. If you do the first two, the last is super easy!

Upcoming opportunities to serve:

- Cub Scout Fun Night/Boy Scout Lock-in, 11/13-14
- Popcorn distribution, 11/6

From the Desk of the District Executive

My first message to you for my Northeast' column is one of a hearty thank you and a brief introduction. I'd like to take a moment to publicly thank you all of you for welcoming me into the area and helping me with the transition of both a new home and career. I would also like to thank you for your patience and willingness to pick up the slack until I learn the ropes. I have been in the Scouting world long enough to know two things. The first is that the heart and soul of this organization are the youth that we, the adult leaders, are in the service of. Second, many professional Scouters come and go, the true "engine" pulling the train of Scouting is the adult leadership. I find myself quite privileged to be on the "Scouting train" of Northeast Iowa; great Scouting is happening here because of its strong, well oiled engine.

I come to you by the way of Chicago. Back in "the city of big shoulders," I worked for a think tank focused on foreign policy formation and education. Before that I lived in Central Wisconsin and Northern Minnesota. I am excited to have Scouting back in my life, and begin a new experience with all of you here in Northeast Iowa.

Recruitment Re-Cap

This article is a public safety message. All Scouts and Scouters be forewarned, this year our newly recruited Tiger Scout charges have been armed with foam projectiles (a gift from the Council for becoming a Cub Scout). And let me be the first to tell you, these boys know how to use them! As fall recruitment winds down, these boys have been wound up and officially set loose in the District to have some good old Scoutin' fun. So please welcome this new group of boys, and don't forget to welcome the new leaders who bravely follow their boys into the world of Scouting! Please beware out there; I think this year could be a fun one!

Well it has been about two months on the job here with the Northeast Iowa Council and, yes, it has been busy, but I am fortunate enough to have also been very lucky. With the help of our District Chairman, Dave Gaskill, and our District Commissioner, Jeremy Smerud, things have gotten off to a quick start in my first two months with the district. I would like to thank both gentlemen for consistently working hard for the Dellaykee District and with me while I have been getting my feet wet. I would also like to thank all of the Dellaykee District adult leaders who have been helping in District activities during the past few months of missing a District Executive. I am glad to be a part of a program that so many people are passionate about.

Everyone has been extremely courteous and helpful since I began here and I have had the pleasure of getting to know many of you over the past weeks. I am confident that within the short term, the Dellaykee District will improve greatly. I am confident that both our District Chairman and Commissioner are right for the job and we will continue, with your support, to fill positions with great adult leaders. I look forward to meeting all of whom I have not yet had the pleasure of meeting, and look forward to working towards making the Dellaykee District better than ever!

Recruitment Doesn't Take Vacation Days...

With the annual Cub Scout Roundup nights completed for the Fall 2010 season, it is important to remember that recruiting both boys and adult leaders is a year round effort. Throughout the year our current leaders should be identifying, cultivating, and preparing new leaders for positions that are needed or will be coming available. It is important to always be prepared for turn-over in leadership. Unexpected issues may occur such as illness, pregnancy, change in work obligations, etc. and it is important to be prepared for these unexpected speed bumps. Be ready to "Make the Ask". Be prepared to not only tell a potential volunteer about Scouting, but show them how easy it is to become a trained, knowledgeable volunteer with Fast Start Programs, Online Training, etc.

There should also be a continued effort throughout the year to recruit new boys into the packs, troops, and crews. For our Cub Scout units, one great method is to plan something fun for the den or pack and have the boys invite a friend or two to the event. You would be surprised at how well this works. This method allows the boy to meet his potential new group of peers and allows the parents to view the structure and some of the activities that actually transpire during the Scouting year.

Troops should also be utilizing a similar tactic. During camp excursions and other events, the boys should be encouraged to bring friends to show them what the Boy Scouts are all about. Teenagers can often be a hard sell with any program. Encouragement from peers and first hand experiences are often the best ways to get teens involved. Troops should also be inviting Webelos to events so that they can become acclimated to the boys, and the parents have an opportunity to recognize that there is a next step after Cub Scouting has been completed. The number one reason someone doesn't do something is because they weren't asked. "Make the Ask" and get more people involved in a program that facilitates character development so our boys can become the best they can be and helpful to their peers and communities.

Fall Camporee

Oceanography, Plumbing, Carpentry, Golf, and yes, even the elusive Tracking Merit Badge were just a few of the Merit Badges on display during this year's Dubuque District Fall Camporee. On Saturday morning, I drove into the New Vienna Tractor Pull Grounds—where the Camporee was held for the first time ever—to join in on all the fun, and boy what a sight to see! From the highway looking down I could spy all those neatly spaced tents and towering gates before each troop's campsite. The whole lot was nestled in on a hillside just outside of town with a creek cutting its turns as it meandered through a picturesque and bucolic Iowa setting. Wow! I can only imagine what travelers must have thought as they saw the boys below having a rollicking time playing games such as Human Foosball, The Pancake Toss, and The Hot Chocolate River. No hot chocolate was needed on this hot autumn day, as the temperature was nearly eighty seven degrees! Donned in Scout shorts, I strolled through the campsites to witness the joys of Scouting and to interview the Scouts and Scouters alike on their planned meals for the evenings cooking contest, designed to test their culinary skills. This fall's patch design was inspired by the Boy Scout Stamp issued this year in honor of America's Scouting centennial. The New Vienna Postmaster was present to show off her stamp collection and was also issuing special cancellations, helping the boys earn their Stamp Collecting Merit Badge. All in all, the event was a success, mostly due to the efforts of Roger and Judy Westemeier and their crack team of Camporee specialists in Troop 60. Kudos to all who help put on a great Scouting event!

Attention Leaders!

Charter Renewal season is upon us so it is time for everyone to get in the Charter Renewal spirit. During the upcoming Roundtable in November, all information regarding Charter Renewal will be handed out and discussed. It is extremely important that a representative from each pack, troop, and crew is in attendance to receive the Charter information for their unit.

For those leaders who have not heard the whisper of Charter Renewal yet; Charter Renewal is done every year and must be completed in order for each unit to continue their respective operations and more importantly, continue providing great programming for the boys!

Upon receipt of the Charter Renewal packet, units will receive information on important dates as well as directions to complete Charter Renewal online as well as paper. You will also have the opportunity to attend a Charter Renewal Clinic.

At the Renewal Clinic, we will go through your charter to ensure there are no mistakes and discuss Pinewood Derby Qualification and any questions you may have.

Please make it a priority to be at the next roundtable on Nov. 9th! Charter Renewals will be due back to the office by December 15th, so please make sure that a representative is present to receive this important information!

Schools Utilizing Camp Klaus

In September, Clayton Ridge High School held its annual leadership retreat at Camp C.S. Klaus. This marks the 11th consecutive year where the school has partnered with the Northeast Iowa Council. Each year, Clayton Ridge’s sophomore class spends two days at camp working on leadership skills and team building. The students must work as a team for these days by planning activities, preparing meals, supplying skits during the campfires, and cleaning up.

West Delaware Middle School participated in low and high C.O.P.E events at camp this fall. Twenty-eight boys and girls spent a day at camp gaining leadership, team building skills, and self confidence. They were challenged by many of the group events. The 8th graders also used the high ropes course, where they went climbing and zip lining.

Law Enforcement Explorers

The Dubuque Police Department hosted their first Exploring meeting in September. 33 boys and girls are participating in the program. Explorers will get a first hand look into law enforcement careers. Through this program Explorers will get experience in crime scene investigations, patrol techniques, finger printing, k-9 handling, firearms handling and safety, traffic stops and more. Meetings are held once a month on Wednesdays. Special thanks to the Dubuque Police Department in providing a terrific program for youth.

Scoutreach

Scoutreach program is fully running at the Boys and Girls Club, Fulton School, Lincoln School, and the Multicultural Center. Boys in grades 1st – 5th will experience a fun filled program which will meet on weekly basis. They will learn essential life skills such as leadership and teambuilding all a while encompassing the values of Cub Scouting. Boys will learn about knot tying, camping, and healthy recreational activities. The Scoutreach program will also have access to the Boys and Girls Club BB gun range. Each of these activities aid in the success of the participants while encircling a fun filled atmosphere.
