

Job Description: Range Safety Officer

Essential Functions: The range safety officer must represent the safety of the rifle, shotgun, and archery range at all times when in use. They must be assertive and make sure all scouts follow the safety rules of the shooting sports area. Also they must be sent to NCS certified.

- Assist with duties of the range according to the shooting sports director
- Promote and teach safety to all scouts and leaders who wish to shoot at staff this summer.
- Be present at the range when any shooting is going on during summer camp.
- All other duties assigned.

