WELCOME from your Scout Executive

Over the last month, most of you have become aware of some upcoming changes to the Scouting program. Obviously, the big change allowing females into the program. While many of you have already read about the changes, some have not. Whether you have or haven't, we have set up a web page which will be updated as we receive new info. <http://www.scoutsiowa.org/girls-in-scouting/>.

While this is the biggest news in Scouting at the moment, there are a couple other things going on in the council, which you may not be aware.

STEM | About 9 months ago a STEM committee was created. While this group may have been mentioned in a previous article, the group has been building "steam". This committee has been meeting to discuss not only how we can highlight the things Scouts already do in the area of STEM, but to also build interest for future programs.

Wellness | By the time a youth gets to Boy Scouts, fitness becomes a defined aspect of rank advancement. The council is currently working with other resources to see if we can do more than just the minimum. While we hope to have some new initiatives in place during 2018, in this issue we have a challenge for Troops: a "Plank Challenge".

As a leader, you all know that we are much more than just an outdoor program. We are a character education program that helps youth become the leaders of tomorrow. By exploring areas like STEM and Wellness, it not only helps those youth to become leaders, it also makes our program attractive to non-Scouts.

Yours in Scouting,

COUNCIL NEWS

Your Son Joined Cub Scouts...Now What?

A lot of Cub Scout parents have no idea what's going on when they start their kids in the Cub Scout program. That's no problem. They all start as Bobcats...

- » The Bobcat Award is like an orientation for kids and parents both. The Bobcat part introduces you to the basic outline of the program.
- » Every Cub Scout will achieve the Bobcat Award (also called the Bobcat Trail). Meaning, you and your kid have to do this part first.
- » Doing the Bobcat Trail gets you familiar with the principals of being a Cub Scout, like the Cub Scout Oath, and the ranks, and so on.
- » Doing the Bobcat Trail also gets you familiar with the workflow for achievement in Cub Scouts. Follow the steps and you'll be ready to do the same for just about any achievement your Cub wants to tackle.
- » It gives the new Scout a chance to earn an award within a few weeks of joining, having them receive an award at one of their first pack meetings!

Plank Challenge: Boy Scouts, Keep Yourself Physically Strong

Want an easy way for Scouts to become "physically strong"? Hold a Plank challenge in your unit. In fact, if your entire unit can end up holding a plank for at least one full minute by the end of the year, we will list you in the January issue of the Nor'easter.

What is a Plank? A Plank is an upper body exercise that targets not only your core, but also helps strengthen other parts of the body.

How to do a Plank?

- » Plant forearms firmly on the ground, shoulder-width apart.
- » Stretch out your legs, stabilizing yourself with the balls of your feet.
- » As you lift yourself off the floor, make sure your body forms a straight line from the top of your head all the way to your feet.
- » Do not let your hips sink down close to the floor; this will cause strain on your lower back, which could result in a low back injury.
- » Do not raise your hips either; though this makes it easier, it will also put unnecessary strain on your lower back. Plus its cheating, making the exercise easier, so don't do that.
- » Make sure your abs are engaged the whole time. You can do this by thinking about getting your belly button to reach the ceiling, not letting gravity take over your stomach and keeping your abdominal muscles engaged the entire time.

The Challenge: At each Troop meeting try to improve from the previous week's time. Start with 15 seconds and good form at the first meeting and go from there. Encourage Scouts to practice during the week to be ready for the next meeting. Try to work up until everyone can do a full minute. Don't forget leaders, if you are physically able, try the challenge yourself.

That's it! If your unit is successful in the challenge before the end of 2017, tag us on Facebook (share a picture if you like) and we will list you in the January issue.

Magic Moments Winner

Congratulations to our Magic Moments in Scouting contest winner: Bill Strauss. Here is his winning entry:

It has been 40 years since I had heard a scout from my troop play taps on a bugle – and I missed it! I loaned an antique official BSA bugle to a new 11 year old crossover – with the challenge of playing the bugle for the troop. It's hard to explain joy and surprise at Camp Klaus this summer when he played perfect taps at the flag lowering ceremony at parents night on that same bugle!

Congratulation Wood Badge Participants!

C3-178-16 Wood Badge Course came to an end on Wednesday, November 1st, 2017. This was 18 months after our last weekend. The course had 31 participants from many Packs, Troops, Venture Crews, and Councils.

We had 30 participants complete their tickets. The Course had one adult leave the program due to family-work issues and he will be missed. On the last day of the 6 day course, each participant agreed to complete 5 tickets working with the Pack, Troop, Crew, District, Council, or Community. These thirty Scouters performed and completed up to 150 different ticket items.

A few of their tickets were: Updating, organizing, and sorting trailers - Scout rooms- adding shelving, or making Patrol boxes; forming new guidelines for the future parents as they arrive into the unit; work on getting more parental involvement in the unit; teach a new merit badge as well as sign up as a counselor, formed a program to assist families in finding information on units and how to locate them; provide a GPS map of Camp Klaus; Survey Camp Klaus, make a DVD of proper flag etiquette and make available for others to view, Geo-caching adventures, plan camporee's and Camporall, get on district committees, work at making more items available for sale in trading post at camp, etc.

Each participant receives a graduating certificate, scarf, leather thong with 2 beads, and a woggle. Besides the pride of knowing they completed their tickets, each participant had new adventures, and made friends. One memorable relationship is the one that extends from Albion, IA to Mt Pleasant, WI. These two adults have no reserve about traveling – no distance is too long for them to visit each other.

Presently, there are two others working their tickets from a Hawkeye course held 6 months later, Elizabeth Schlarmann and Tim Willenborg.

DELLAYKEE DISTRICT UPDATE

Cub Scout Membership Season is Almost Over!

The Dellaykee District's Cub Scout Membership Season has been a fun, jammed-packed time! With all of the first Recruitment Nights now complete, our district is looking great! We only need a few more new recruits to reach our end of the year goal!

Cubmasters, if you have any applications, please turn them in! We would like to have all boys registered before the re-chartering paperwork is handed out at Roundtable on November 14th. Thank you for a great recruitment season! Let's keep the momentum going and finish strong!

Fall Camporee Recap

This year's Dellaykee District Fall Camporee was record breaking! With over 300 participants, it was the highest attended Dellaykee Camporee in the history of the council!

Over the weekend, Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts learned how to backpack. They hiked to different stations including: building a shelter, first aid, fishing, making their own dehydrated lunch, shake down, water filtration, building a fire, and building their own survival kits! Along with the hiking stations, the Scouts were able to experience a great bonfire and community dinner!

A big thank you goes out to all the volunteers who put together this great camporee! From planning, setting-up, working a station, and cleaning up, the camporee was a success because of you. THANK YOU!

Application and Charter Reminder

Time for rechartering! Charter paperwork is due to the Scout Service Center in December for December renewals and January 15 for January charters. If you have any questions regarding the re-chartering process or would like to set up a rechartering meeting to get all the paperwork completed with help, please contact your District Executive, Serica Rowley.

DUBUQUE DISTRICT UPDATE

Welcome New Scouts!

I would just like to say thank you to all our pack leaders and volunteers for their hard work this fall. Together, we have worked to recruit new boys to Cub Scouts for the fall of 2017! Please let me know how I can continue to help your Pack bring the fun of Cub Scouts to as many boys in your community as possible!

If you have any outstanding applications for new Scouts or adult volunteers, please contact me! It is very important to the re-chartering process to have all new applications in before the end of the year. Remember, recruitment is not a seasonal event. We should be thinking about and welcoming new Scouts into our units all year round!

2017 Fall Camporee was a Big Success!

It was a beautiful weekend full of Scouting activities at Swiss Valley Park on October 27th-29th. Both Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts were enjoying the camporee activities and beautiful scenery. Scouts participated in many activities over the weekend, including tomahawk tossing, homemade bow and arrow course, archery, GaGa Pit, scavenger hunt, and many service projects! Over 60 Scouts and adults were in attendance.

We would like to thank all the leaders and volunteers for all their support and efforts in running such a great event!

Application and Charter Reminder

Please remember that charter paperwork is due to the Scout Service Center for December charters in December and January charters are due by January 15. If you have any questions regarding the re-chartering process, please contact your District Executive, Peter Supple.
